RULES AND INSTRUCTIONS

Before granting permission for your child to participate in a Sentinel Overland trip, please read this form in full. Ensure you understand the nature of the activities, including travel over uneven terrain, outdoor skill instruction, and exposure to variable weather conditions. Discuss the trip expectations with your child, including the need to follow all guide instructions, wear provided safety equipment, and behave respectfully toward other participants and the environment. Confirm your child is physically and emotionally prepared for the trip and disclose any relevant medical or dietary needs below. Your signature acknowledges that you have reviewed this information, consent to your child's participation, and accept the inherent risks involved.
